MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

This meeting was held at Bishop Hall, Punahou, on the evening of April 29, 1905, with the President, A. B. Clark, in the chair. It was opened with a prayer by R. W. Andrews. Miss Castle led in the singing of that grand old Hymn, "Head of the Church Triumphant," hallowed by sweet associations with the first band of missionaries that landed on these shores.

The minutes of the last meeting of the Society were adopted. Business items in the minutes of the Board of Managers were taken up in order, discussed and adopted, Rev. O. H. Gulick making quite a detailed explanation regarding the Pleasant Island Mission and its need of a printing-press outfit.

These items were as follows:

1. It was voted that 900 copies of the 53rd Annual Report be printed.

2. It was voted that the names of deceased members be placed in a separate list and printed once in five years, beginning with 1905, together with both lists of Honorary members.

3. It was voted to reduce the price of the Albums, the morocco-bound volumes from $7.50 to $5, the cloth-bound volumes from $5 to $2.50, and the unbound from $2 to $1.25.

4. It was voted to change Art. 5 of the Constitution by striking out all that follows the word Society in the third line, and substituting these words:

"May become a certified Life Member by paying ten dollars at one time, or one dollar as a first payment and one dollar or more annually thereafter until ten dollars has been paid."

5. It was voted to appropriate $250 of the interest of the Invested Fund for a printing-press and outfit for the Pleasant Island Mission.

The following resolution passed by the Board of Managers, regarding the death of one of their number was ratified by the Society:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, since the last annual meeting of this Society death has removed from us our cousin, S. EDWARD DAMON,

Be it Resolved, That in the death of our esteemed cousin this Society and its Board of Managers have suffered great loss, and we desire to record our tribute to the memory of an active, able and faithful member and associate.

The Treasurer's report was read, accepted, and the last item referred to the Board of Managers.

The instrumental music following was a rare treat: A Trio, Adagio, by Schuman—Violin, Miss Ethel Montgomery Andrews; cello, Hon. Carl Smith; piano, Miss Caroline Castle. A hearty encore was responded to by another beautiful trio.

The President, as chairman of the committee for securing headquarters for the Society, said the committee had done what it could. A meeting had been held with the Hawaiian Board, who were in entire sympathy with the project, but were not, at present, able to do anything in a financial way toward it. The committee had consulted with many interested parties and all advised deferring the matter for a little time. As it was impossible to do more at present, the committee asked to be continued in power. Dr. Clark feels very strongly on this subject. He thinks it is almost necessary to the continuation of the Society. Many others are greatly in favor of it and keep asking him what is being done. He believes it will surely be settled within the next five years.

A part of the Corresponding Secretary's report was read and the report was accepted.

This was followed by a beautiful solo, "O Dry Those Tears," sung by Miss White of Wawaiahao Seminary, with accompaniment by Miss Cunningham.

The collection taken up amounted to $14.80.

The following officers were unanimously elected: W. R. Castle, President; C. H. Cooke, Vice-president; Mrs. R. W. Andrews, Secretary; Lyle A. Dickey, Treasurer.

W. O. Smith spoke very eloquently on the subject of securing the Chamberlain and Cooke buildings to be used in part by the Hawaiian Board and partly by the Cousins. Then it should be furnished as far as possible with old mission furniture—furniture now sadly scattered. But the greatest need is for a safe home for the valuable archives that are not now being properly cared for, but must be moved about from place to place. A part of the Chamberlain home is peculiarly adapted to this use, as it can easily be rendered fire-proof. Besides, these old homes should not be left to decay. Some are already gone. The Smith home on Kauai, and the Johnson house have both disappeared. The Wilcox home has been preserved, and perhaps the Whitney place is still there. These buildings should especially be preserved. The committee estimated the entire cost at $25,000. If S. T. Alexander had lived he would have seen that the plan was carried out. Others are interested and the importance of the matter should be explained to those not present.

Rev. O. H. Gulick agreed to all that Mr. Smith had said. The Records, handed down from the Fathers should be cared for, and this stone building, contiguous to Kawaiahao Church should be secured. The next five years should see it completed.

Edward P. Wilcox, but lately arrived from the States, when called upon, said he came to renew acquaintance with the Cousins, but not to make speeches, but he thinks this project should be carried out and hopes it will be done. Dr. W. D. Alexander moved that the committee be continued. The motion was seconded and unanimously passed.

The President was glad that W. O. Smith and others feel so strongly on this subject and thinks the prospects are encouraging.

A vote of thanks was given to Miss Castle and her able supporters for the fine musical program.

The meeting was closed by singing one verse of "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

There has been but one regular meeting during the year. The Memorial Meeting was held at Bishop Hall, Punahou, on September 26, 1904. The decorations, under the care of Mrs. E. A. Weaver and Mrs. H. G. Alexander, were of lilies, orchids and maile. The music was under the efficient care of Miss Caroline Castle.

The Society united in singing one verse of "Blest be the tie that binds," after which Dr. S. E. Bishop offered the opening prayer. The minutes of the last meeting having been printed were accepted without reading, also the minutes of the Board of Managers. The collection was taken. Then Miss Castle played Chopin's funeral march, the sad chords vibrating in harmony with the many bereaved hearts present.

President A. B. Clark announced that the meeting was held as a memorial to those who had passed away since the AnnualMeeting, especially for the two who had been called from the wilds of Africa.

Judge Dole's tribute to S. T. Alexander was a beautiful, vivid picture of the school-boy friend, the young man, the business man, the vigorous, optimistic, benevolent man, whose study was the world and mankind; who had faith in his friends and faith in the management of the world. He said: "As the light of a star may continue to reach us for centuries after it has been quenched, so the influence of some lives is felt long after they have passed away. I first knew Mr. Alexander as a small boy at Punahou. He was first called Samuel Thomas, soon shortened to Sam, and 'Sam Alexander' he has been ever since. He was restless and fond of adventure verging on recklessness. He was not a scholar like his brother, the Professor. He was full of fun but was never angry. As he grew older he felt the need of education. He graduated at Williams College and taught two years at Lahainaluna Seminary. He then went into the sugar business, which brought him his fortune. He was first manager of the new Waihee plantation, with H. P. Baldwin as sugar-boiler, then taking charge of Haiku, with Mr. Baldwin at Paia, they began, in fifteen years, to realize large profits. The building of the Haiku ditch was their great accomplishment, as it was the first enterprise of the kind on the islands.

"Later he went, for his health, to Oakland, and was soon able to indulge the desire of his life for travel. He explored the Alps and the Andes, the Orient and Egypt, the South Seas and the Arctic, and in advanced years tramped many hundreds of miles, hunting the lion, the zebra, and the giraffe in Africa.

"He was unostentatious about his giving, and his intimate friends did not know of his many charities. I find it hard to feel that he is dead. I am confident that when the end came, if he knew that it was at hand, he faced the new future with cheer and a blithe heart."

Rev. O. H. Gulick regretted being called upon to eulogize his own brother, who also died in "Darkest Africa." He said: "Thomas was the youngest of seven sons, and so was named for our family physician, Thomas Lafon. I remember the year of his birth because the day he was born an old negro, 'Black George,' came to the house with the announcement that the 'Emperor of England was a woman'—Victoria had ascended the throne. At Punahou Thomas was boon companion of S. T. Alexander. Later he went to Williams College, then to Union Seminary and Andover. He was pastor of the Congregational Church at Montreal, Canada, and for eight or nine years a missionary in Spain, where he was greatly beloved. Leaving Spain because of ill health he settled at Las Vegas, N. M., and later preached for some time at Makawao, Maui. He was afterward agent for the McCall Missionary Association, raising money for the same, and was chaplain for the Presbyterian Home at Devon, Pa. He enjoyed traveling, was buoyant, personally pleasing and well-informed. He visited Spitzbergen with his friend Alexander, and wrote a magnificent description of 'The Land of the Midnight Sun.' With the same friend he made a tour of the world, and before starting out on this last trip, they spent six months on the study of Africa."

Miss Anna M. Paris read the following original poem:

IN MEMORIAM

(For Samuel T. Alexander and Thomas L. Gulick, who died in Africa.)

Our friends, our comrades who have gone
  A little space ahead—
Though they with us no more may meet
  We mourn them not as dead.

The world was theirs, no boundary lines
  Could stay their tireless feet,
Nor danger chill. 'Twas God Himself
  Gave the command, "Retreat."

And in that life beyond, we know
  Those souls shall find their quest;
Freed from earth's barriers they'll know
  The joy of toil and rest.

The quest without the pain is theirs
  The rest earth could not give—
Fullness of joy, for only now
  Have they begun to live!

Brave, dauntless ones, long was the road
  Your earthly feet have trod!
Pray tell us—Did you travel far
  To find the way to God?

"Not far," the answer seems to come,
  As through the deafening roar
Of human sounds, faint echoes float
  From that fair, heavenly shore!

Not far. We feel the shore that lies
  To mortal eyes unseen—
Not far the way—for comrades dear,
  Have bridged the space between!

And whisperings from that spirit realm
  Fall on the spirit ear—
Our loved ones speak! We feel and know
  They never were so near.

Mr. Livingstone then sang Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," which was repeated by Mr. Gulick a short time before his death.

Following this Dr. S. E. Bishop spoke briefly on the life of Henry M. Whitney. "Mr. Whitney was for over fifty years one of the most conspicuous figures in the islands. He was born on Kauai and sent early to Rochester, N. Y., where he became a skilled printer. I first knew him when he was in Rochester, attending the Rochester Collegiate Institute. I used to see him walking to and from school with Henry Haight, later Governor of California. In 1849, when foreman of one of Harper and Brother's plants he was called here, and came immediately. He was a member of Kalakaua's privy council, kept a bookstore, founded the Advertiser, and as Postmaster General printed the first postage stamps printed in these islands. His personal wisdom and good judgment were remarkable. He was held in high esteem for his honesty and high integrity. He was a man of great fidelity to his duties. It was happier that he was removed suddenly from his home among his family and friends, rather than far away in the Antipodes."

Mrs. Gulick spoke of Mrs. Hillebrand, whom she always remembered with love. She said: "Jane Elizabeth Bishop, afterward Mrs. Hillebrand, was born at Kailua, Kauai, and at the age of thirteen went to the States for her education. It was after her return that we formed a very close friendship. She was a warm, affectionate and loving friend, very genial in disposition and always looking on the bright side of things. She was very happy in her domestic life, and after Dr. Hillebrand's death she went again to the States to educate her two daughters. Returning to Honolulu a year before her death she was delighted to be on her native soil and among her old friends and her grandchildren."

Mrs. Whitney read a tribute of esteem to Mrs. Westervelt, whom she knew in Oberlin, Ohio, a frail, sensitive girl in austere, stern surroundings. While taking a post-graduate course at college an attack of spinal meningitis prostrated her, and from that time she was never free from pain. Eleven times her friends gathered around her bedside thinking that the hour of release from pain had come. In spite of her suffering her home was always a happy one. She entered with enthusiasm her husband's mission work and delighted in the sports of young people. She sympathized with those in trouble and gave of her scant strength when she had none to spare. Mrs. Westervelt's strongest characteristic was the constant effacement of self that she might not mar the pleasure or interfere with the work about her. Even in the daily agony of the last months of her life she greeted all her friends with a smile that was all sweetness, and let none know the suffering she was passing through."

After this, all joined in singing "Lead Kindly Light."

Mr. W. O. Smith referred to the American Mission to Hawaii as a wonderful history that will grow in importance and wonder as the years go by. The literary work accomplished by the parents of Mr. Whitney, Mrs. Hillebrand, and others was priceless, and the influence which Dr. Armstrong and Dr. Judd had in shaping the laws and destiny of the islands was unmeasured. Their children were brought up with the High Chiefs and their interests were identical. Of these he spoke specially of Mrs. Carter. Hers was such a beautiful life—so full of grace and kindliness. She was loved here and sought after in Washington, and when sorrow came and she had to bring up her family almost alone, she was very brave. The loss of her son under such tragic circumstances, and her six, eight, ten years of suffering revealed her beautiful character. She was so cheerful through it all, and had such a broad catholic spirit, and faith in the justice of things. It was a privilege to have known her, —so kindly, so strong, so beautiful. She will live in the memory of those who knew her as a cheering thought, an inspiration.

Miss Chamberlain then spoke of Emmalita Wilder, who returned with Mrs. Judd from the States, won the hearts of all, and married our cousin Joe Cooke. They afterward went to California, where they opened their house as a home for all islanders.

She had so many pleasant recollections of Mrs. Clara Armstrong Banning, her friend and Sunday School scholar, and she spoke especially of a passage in Isaiah that they had loved and studied together: "With joy shall ye draw water from the wells of salvation." This became Mrs. Banning's greeting to her, and it was her goodby when she left for California, and again last year she met her with the greeting, "With joy shall ye draw water from the wells of salvation."

Miss Chamberlain also paid a brief and touching tribute to Mrs. Reed, formerly Mrs. Shipman, who had so successfully labored to bring up her children and grandchildren, and whose pupils of long ago covered her grave with flowers.

Mr. W. W. Hall said he could not refrain from mentioning some who had passed on but a little while before, especially his friend, Henry Waterhouse. They were school-boys together, associated in business, and neighbors for fifty years. He enumerated many good deeds he had done, notably among the natives, whose language he spoke more fluently than his own.

He remembered Mrs. Cooke as bridesmaid at his own wedding, and Mrs. Sunter, whose father was connected with the printing department.

Dr. J. M. Whitney said he came here thirty-five years ago when the friends were in the midst of their great work, and he considered it a great privilege to be with such workers. One of the first men to whom Dr. Judd introduced him was H. M. Whitney, and he wished to bear testimony to the cheer, the inspiration and valuable information he had received from this noble man.

Dr. Emerson's remarks turned again to the two friends whose passing away had made Africa a darker place, to us, than before. They as boys were always together. They made excursions together to the same mountains, bathed in the same pond, studied the same lessons, were members of the same debating society, traveled through life together, and left their bodies in the same wild land. Yet they were very different. Sam was a vigorous, strong boy. He took book-learning severely, but when a thing was learned, it staid. The mind of Tom Gulick was inquisitive to a degree. He had a thirst for knowledge, and an acute mind. It was a stimulus to thought to be with him.

"Mr. Alexander's mind," said Mr. O. H. Gulick, "was stored with such terse sayings as this, spoken when a sufferer in the hospital: 'We do not know pain till we have experienced it, and we do not value health till we have lost it.' "

Miss Chamberlain said, "Mr. Alexander was the first to suggest the Missionary Album. He wrote the first letter and paid the first cash."

"Yes," said Dr. Clark, "and when last here, and approached in regard to the Cousins' Home, he said, 'Go ahead, and when I come back we'll put it through.' "

The President, in closing, drew attention to the long lives of the Cousins, as shown by those who had gone, whose ages ranged between sixty and eighty years.

Miss Castle then led in the old song, "Oft in the Stilly Night," and the meeting adjourned.

There have been held, besides, two meetings of the Board of Managers.

The first met at Dr. Clark's office, September 20, where speakers were chosen, committees appointed, and other necessary arrangements made for the Memorial Meeting.

The second was held at the residence of W. O. Smith for the transaction of business prior to the Annual Meeting, with an adjourned meeting at 7:30 p. m., April 29, 1905.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

"Kind messages that pass from land to land;
Kind letters, that betray the heart's deep history,
In which we feel the pressure of a hand,—
One touch of fire,—and all the rest is mystery!"

To absent Cousins we hoped to tell of great things accomplished this year, of a permanent home secured, and old records stored; but these things have not materialized yet. The future, we trust, has them safe in store.

The year opened amid great depression in business, and "hard times" was the universal cry.

Then the Summer and Autumn made our hearts heavy with bereavement. The Memorial Meeting, held September 26, commemorated the death of nine of our members. As Dr. Bishop said, "This is not a cause of sorrow, for it is good for the aged to depart after filling out lives of service. They pass to the bright Beyond, where One, who is the Resurrection and the Life, has prepared for them a Place."

But scarcely a day passed after this meeting ere one of our officers, S. E. Damon, was called away. He was young, talented, educated, polished, and fitted for a great social and business future. The whole city was shocked by the unprovoked murder. Business houses were closed, and the long procession of mourners and the beautiful floral decorations showed the esteem in which he was held by his fellow citizens. The sympathy of all went out to the father, to the young wife and little ones, and to the absent mother, sister and brothers.

Again on October 4, in the quiet of the night, the beautiful soul of Helen Lowrey went to the Father. In that Harvest Home are needed, not only the ripe sheaves from earth's garden, but the brilliant flowers as well, the fragrance of the lily and the beauty of the rose. Hers had been such a sheltered youth, so untouched by disappointment and care, and the transplanting would be only to a soil richer in love and protection than this.

On November 21, at Evanston, Illinois, there passed away one of the most distinguished men whom our Island community has produced. We cull from a memorial tribute by Rev. O. H. Gulick, in The Friend, the following: "Dr. Lyman was one of the earliest scholars at Punahou School, now Oahu College, and graduated from Williams College in 1858, being the valedictorian of his class. He then studied medicine in Harvard Medical School and in the New York College of Physicians. He married Miss Sarah Kitredge Clark, of Honolulu, taking his bride to Chicago, where he soon established a fine practice. Dr. Lyman was a man of great learning, of wide reading, and of the most thorough acquaintance with the foremost thought of his profession, standing among the highest of the greatest physicians of this country and of the world. He was author of many medical works, among them 'The Family Physician,' 'Insomnia and the Disorders of Sleep.' His work upon nervous diseases is considered one of the highest in this department of medicine. He was the promoter and founder of a leading medical institution of Chicago, Rush College, of which he was for many years the Dean. He was the physician of the students of the Chicago Congregational Theological Seminary, usually serving them without charge. He was also professor in this seminary, giving occasional lectures on hygiene. He possessed a wonderful memory, yet with all his learning he was a very modest man. He was a thoroughly systematic giver, laying aside one tenth of his income for charity. He leaves behind him two unmarried and two married daughters."

On Nov. 29, at the age of eighty-two, after a week's illness, the Rev. James Kekela went to his blessed reward. He was one of the first two Hawaiian missionaries who, with their wives, sailed to the Marquesas islands in 1852. After faithfully laboring for forty-seven years he returned, with his wife and daughters, to his native land, leaving two sons and many grandchildren behind. To the last he carried and treasured a gold watch and chain sent to him by President Lincoln as a recognition of his heroic, self-sacrificing act in saving the mate of a schooner who was about to be roasted and eaten by the cannibals. Mr. Kekela's wife, Naomi, died about three years ago. They leave children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren to the number of forty-five. One of the sons writes that Rev. S. Kauwealoha, who accompanied Kekela to the Marquesas fifty years ago, is well and happy. He also writes that it is said that the Roman Catholic missionaries are to leave these islands, their schools are to be disbanded and their lands given to the government.

In November also passed away Mr. E. M. Fowler, the husband of our cousin, Margaret Brewer Fowler; and on Feb. 11, 1905, in Hilo, Mrs. Mary Kinoole Pitman Ailau, an Alii, and a member of this Society.

On April 16, Gus. Hezekiah Aea died of consumption. He was a son of a Micronesian missionary, and has been a printer for many years, on the Advertiser, the Kuokoa and other papers. He it was who set up from copy by Mr. Bingham several works in the Gilbertese language, the last of which was a commentary on the Four Gospels.

Among those who were not members, but descendants of the missionaries, there died Sept. 3, in Honolulu, of heart disease and pneumonia, Charles Dwight, son of Rev. Samuel G. Dwight. He leaves a wife and seven children, a brother, Samuel C. Dwight, and a sister, Mrs. Joseph Lovejoy, of Berkeley, California.

On June 4, 1903, at Hillhurst, Washington, died Miss Amanda Loomis, daughter of Elisha Loomis, the pioneer missionary printer of Honolulu. Miss Loomis was born in Honolulu, educated at Rushville, N. Y., and at Ontario Female Seminary at Geneva. She taught near home and then at Natchez Institute, Natchez, Miss., remaining there till the outbreak of the Civil War, when she went to Ypsilanti, Mich., making her home with her brother Albert, and taking care of her paralytic mother during her last years. She afterward taught in Fort Vancouver, Washington.

Albert Seward Loomis was also born in Honolulu, 1825, and had his early life and schooling at Rushville, N. Y., but when he came to man's estate he settled on a farm at Ypsilanti and married at the age of twenty-one. He died at Detroit, Mich., but was buried at Ypsilanti. Five children and his second wife survive him, and he has two brothers, Jeremiah Evarts and John Howard, living in the Western States.

We cannot omit from this list one who, though not a Cousin, was a friend of the Society, and a dear friend of so many of its members, Mrs. Alice (Brown) Mackintosh, wife of Rev. Mackintosh of this city. She was given to good works, and her works do follow her.

OUR MISSIONARIES

From Mr. Delaporte's fifth annual report of the Pleasant Island Mission for 1904, we quote the following:

"We are pleased with the record and the progress of the Master's work during the past year. Additions to our membership have been made, and but two children have been enticed by the Roman Catholics to follow them, while we have been gladdened by the return of others.

"During the first four months your missionaries were short of food. In March they nearly subsisted on scraped cocoanuts only. Flour, meats, sugar and other necessities of life were entirely missing. This sad state of affairs was caused by the non-arrival of supplies which were forwarded to us in November, 1903, by Rev. O. H. Gulick, from Honolulu. The vessel carrying the goods from Sydney to Nauru was nearly wrecked on the reef at Jaluit. We were relieved through the arrival of the trading schooner "Triton," in April. Sufficient food and cloth was bought to last for three months. The goods shipped by Mr. Gulick, valued at nearly $800, reached us late in July, 1904, but what had not been stolen arrived in such a state as to render it unfit, even dangerous, for food. Mrs. D. partook of a can of vegetables and suffered for weeks afterward with symptoms of poisoning. We therefore condemned all the canned goods. An official survey was taken and a loss of $650 was found. We hope to purchase our supplies in future, here.

"We were gladdened through the arrival of visitors during the year: Hon. E. Brandeis, Governor of the Marshall Islands and Nauru, Mr. Hutter, Messrs. J. T. Arundel, A. Ellis and Swanton of the Pacific Phosphate Company, and others. As far as known the P. P. Co. expects to begin operations on this island in the near future with a staff of perhaps 100 white men and 1000 laborers. Much work can be done by your missionary among these foreign laborers. We rejoice that such men, such earnest Christians as Messrs. Arundel and Ellis, are the highest officials of this company. J. T. Arundel, Esq., Vice-chairman of the P. P. Company, very kindly placed an old house covered with 70 sheets of good roof-iron at our disposal, which enabled us to build, with the additional outlay of a few hundred dollars, the long desired new house, 40x25 feet, including verandas. We hope the many friends of the mission will assist Mr. Gulick financially to enable him to meet this expenditure caused by the improvement in your mission premises. We have now ample roof space but can store only 1400 gallons of water, which is indeed not much during seasons when for many months no rain falls. We dare not ask for a 3000 gallon tank at present, but we would rejoice if the Lord would put it in the hearts of His people to buy one.

"Your missionaries, especially Mrs. Delaporte, were far from well during most of the year. We had often asked the Lord to open our way to take a short rest in a cooler climate. Our prayers were answered through the kindness of Messrs. Arundel and Swanton in giving Mrs. Delaporte and two children a passage to Honolulu in one of their splendid 3000-ton steamers. These gentlemen deserve the sincere thanks of all the friends interested in this mission. The expense by way of Sydney would have been far greater. Mrs. D. left Nauru Oct. 15, per S. S. 'Inger' by way of Banaba and Tarawa. Captain Johannsen of the 'Inger' is a Christian gentleman and I am glad it was her lot to sail in a vessel with such a commander. The captain very cordially put his own cabin at the disposal of Mrs. Delaporte. The writer, too, would gladly have gone, but does not see his way clear for years to come. With eight, sometimes even ten, Roman Catholic missionaries on the island it would not be wise to leave the people yet.

"The Church.—We have a membership of 243. One hundred and thirty-one children of members have been baptized. The communion services have been held regularly four times during the year, and have been well attended. Our congregations upon the Sabbath have been large, with the exception of the four months when nearly 250 natives were in the hospital. Your missionary was able to preach every Sabbath morning but one, when he was ill.

"There are conducted five services every Sabbath day, one at each station, exclusive of the sunrise prayer-meetings. Baptismal and communion services are held in the Oro church only. Menan, Anebare, Ewa and Buada have each a schoolhouse and a teacher by whom services are conducted on Sabbath and Wednesday afternoons.

"The average attendance during the year has been 602, and nearly 1000 natives are adherents of the mission. They contributed $200 toward the support of our native teachers, training-school, and ordinary church and school expenses.

"The past year has been prosperous and peaceful. We have many weak members who need never-ceasing care. The Nauru Christian must not be compared with his more fortunate white brother who has been born and brought up under Christian influences. The missionary is pastor, peacemaker, teacher, counselor and doctor, and his wife is lady physician and nurse. To be called out at all hours, sometimes for most trivial causes, is his lot, yet go he must or the confidence of his people would be lost.

"Oro is the station where your missionary family lives. It is most centrally located and has the best landing place. It is here that our large church building stands, a sign to every passing ship that even on lonely Nauru the Word of God has taken root. The Sabbath morning service and all special services are held here. The Sabbath School, attended by old and young, meets here every Sabbath in the year at 10 a. m., followed by the regular service.

"At this station we have our largest day school with more than two hundred scholars. Besides Bible lessons, we teach German, reading, arithmetic, geography and singing. They sing Sankey and Moody hymns in their own language and in German. The attendance was somewhat irregular during the first part of the year on account of the new roads which the Governor was having built all over the islands and on which everybody had to work.

"At Ewa station forty children attend the school in charge of a Marshall couple, Lajanar and Neibaj, who are doing good work. The people here seem more heathenish and filthy in their habits. Besides, this is the headquarters of the Roman Catholics, who have given us much trouble.

"Anabare station is our youngest child and is under the care of a couple Quabin and his wife, trained at our Oro school. Thirty-five children attend school. Nearly all of his people have become Christians since he began work there. This station is on the East, far away from all foreign influence.

"Menan station, on the South, is cared for by Auwobo and wife. Thirty-two small children attend here. The people are quite faithful notwithstanding the proximity of another Catholic station.

"At Buada we have no regular teacher, but it is the banner district. The 300 people living in this interior district are, without exception, all adherents of this mission. E. Dagabo, who owns most of the land, is a chiefess and rules here supreme. She is a good and faithful woman and watches over her people. Here is found a nice inland sea, its waters almost fresh. Hills surround the district and some beautiful views may be had. Our best contributions come from Buada. Services are held here every Sabbath afternoon, while the children attend the Oro school.

"Books—Since opening the work the following books have been translated and published:

1900. Small Hymn book.
1901. Small Primer.
1902. The Gospel of Matthew and John.
The Epistle to the Galatians.
1 and 2 Timothy, 1, 2, and 3 John.
Hymn book containing 66 hymns.
1903. Church History.
Part of O. T. Bible stories.

1904. School book containing 138 pages.
Larger Catechism being at present mimeographed.

"Nearly translated are—Complete Bible stories, Acts, and both Epistles to the Corinthians.

"All these books, with the exception of Matthew, John, Epistles and Nauru hymn book which were printed at Kusaie, have been mimeographed and bound here on the field by your missionary.

"First class work can not be done on a mimeograph here, as the heat affects stencil paper and rollers. To obtain supplies for books at Sydney is quite expensive and we hope to have a small printing press some day. It is just for this sort of work we have built the new house. We plan to have most of the New Testament ready in a year or so. During November I had to discontinue translating and printing, as I was far from well.

"We implore your earnest prayers in behalf of this little nation, that it may be won for Christ; and for your missionaries, that in times of perplexity, when important decisions are to be made, God may give us wisdom to do just the right thing.

"In closing, permit us to extend our most hearty thanks to all who have so kindly assisted financially in our work, and to Rev. O. H. Gulick, who not only assumes the heavy burden of raising the necessary funds to carry on the work, but who, through his real missionary letters keeps in close touch with us and thus extends to us words of counsel and encouragement."

Mrs. Delaporte arrived in Honolulu Nov. 3rd, and has been under the care of her physician ever since. After some weeks in the sanitarium she is again at the home of Rev. O. H. Gulick. She hopes to be so far recovered as to return to Nauru in May. She is a brave woman, gladly going back to the privations, the weariness and the heat. She says, "God bless the people! I love them."

THE SCHOOLS

The Kawaiahao Seminary, a school dear to many of our hearts, has had a good year. A new building and location are so sorely needed that it was thought best to make no more outlay on the present one than necessity demanded. Some needed kitchen and dining-room furniture, repairs to the roof, and inside painting, have added much to the comfort and facilitated the work of the school. The health of the pupils has been very good, and the girls have made progress in lessons, work and character building. There are over eighty enrolled with an average attendance of seventy-five.

In Kohala, a dressmaking class has been formed of such pupils as have finished the six years' school-work. The cooking class meets three times a week and receives practical lessons in cooking, and lessons in food values. The weaving stands foremost in manual work, and many beautiful things have been made. There has also been adopted a more systematic method of Bible study.

The Hilo Boarding School has had a larger per cent of Hawaiians this year, some very promising boys. They have been experimenting with the cacao industry in connection with the experiment station. This school has also had a very interesting class of about fifty in Bible study. They took up the exposition of John's gospel, with illustrations from nature and science, memorizing the principal verses in each chapter. Discussions were entered into, and some students continued the study out of class, and through the influence of right living and right speaking have persuaded a number to attend this school.

Maunaolu, the "Beautiful Mountain School," with its invigorating breezes, priceless scenery, and beautiful modern building, has had its trials this year. Many cases of sickness, typhoid fever, followed each other in rapid succession, baffling the skill of all to trace its cause. A longer vacation was given during the holidays and a thorough investigation resulted in the discovery that the water supply was tainted.

This was remedied by the trustees and the school is now prosperous and the health good. We are sorry to learn that the principal, Miss Snow, at the request of an invalid sister, expects to return to Hampton.

Mills Seminary, under vice-principal and acting principal Arthur M. Merrill and three good teachers, has been quite prosperous. There are sixty-one members of the school. Athletics has its deserved place in the school, and for this and other reasons they need more room in the suburbs.

Lahainaluna has taken many steps in advance this year. Three new buildings will soon be completed. The school-building proper has five class rooms, a library, an office and an assembly-hall. All are well lighted and airy. The dormitories will accommodate 100 boys. All are wired for electric lighting. The printing-press is now run by machinery instead of foot-power. The blacksmith shop and carpenter's shop have been fitted with new forges and new tools. The farming department has been newly equipped with implements, and the boys have been busy clearing and walling taro land, and planting sorghum, sweet potatoes, bananas and vegetables. The enrollment has been 62 for the past term. The Principal, C. A. McDonald, is very hopeful for the future of this school.

ECHOES FROM COUSINS

The marriage of our cousin Marion Dillingham to Rev. John P. Erdman, and their departure for Japan as missionaries, was one of the events of the summer of 1904. They were married in Oakland, spent two weeks as guests of Mrs. W. F. Frear on Tantalus, and then a short time with her mother at the Dillingham home, where she received many attentions from her girlhood friends. Mr. and Mrs. Erdman are pleasantly situated and very busy at Yamaguchi, Japan.

Mr. Charles S. Lewis and wife, whose home is in Oakland, Cal., spent their vacation in Oakland, Maine. They went by way of Panama and through the Atlantic to New York, touching at Guatemala, where their vessel took on a cargo of crude India-rubber, and they enjoyed the fine mountain scenery.

The Honolulu cousins were glad to welcome Mrs. Grace (Pierpont) Haven, a granddaughter of Rev. Sheldon Dibble. She was on her way to teach in Kona, Hawaii. Her husband, a successful Congregational minister, had died about a year and a half previous, and she had gone back to teaching in the San Jose Normal School.

A letter to Miss Chamberlain from Mrs. Clara (Dibble) Inch, widow of Philip Inch, late of Washington, D. C., written June 10, acknowledged the receipt of the Missionary Album. She says: "I received the Album and deeply appreciate it. It is a link between the past and the present. Those times are becoming history, and the Album is binding facts and faces together in such a way that those times and people will ever be with us in blessed fellowship." Mrs. Inch resides in Washington, and her only daughter, Agnes, is her constant companion, though she is deeply engaged in voluntary mission work. She meets with many wonderful results in the reformation of very bad drunkards, and does constantly for them and their families. Mrs. Inch's only son, Robert, is a lawyer in New York City, but finds time for a mission class Sunday afternoons.

From Frederick, Md., comes an account of a successful performance of the Oratorio of Elijah, under the musical direction of Prof. Maurice G. Beckwith.

Mr. Samuel C. Andrews, who was traveling all the summer and fall of 1903 for Thompson and Thomas of Chicago, writes enthusiastically to friends concerning Oklahoma, Ind. Territory. He says the territory contains enormous quantities of coal, iron, oil, lead, zinc, marble and other resources, and there are no crop failures as in other states. His two daughters, Mabel and Louise, have been educated at Ann Arbor, Mich., and report says Miss Mabel is soon to be married.

Miss Lucy Andrews, since the death of her stepmother, has been caring for an aunt in Springfield, Vermont. Here her nieces, Alice and Florence Shepard, spend their summer vacation. They then had one year more at Northfield. After this year Alice expects to go to Wellesley and Florence to one of the industrial institutes to prepare for work in the Aintab College industries. Miss Lucy and her nieces are greatly interested in developing and extending the sale of the exquisite needle work of the Armenian women and girls, many of whom are widows and orphans through the Turkish massacre.

At Miss Chamberlain's request a quantity of this lace was sent to her, but as it arrived just previous to her illness, Mrs. P. C. Jones kindly took charge of it and sold it all.

Letters from Mrs. Hessie Dickson Howard tell of the wonderful and interesting revival meetings at Los Angeles.

Rev. Samuel L. Conde, veteran of the Civil War, has written to our Recorder from Cleveland, Ohio. His letter was mainly on the subject of the proposed Missionary Record, which he heartily approves, and for which he sends family data, and promises sketches of his father and mother. In continuation he says: "My daughter Bertha, International College Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., is at present in England on an evangelistic visit to young women's colleges and seminaries in England and Scotland. She will visit France and Holland in her work before returning. She returned from her fourth trip to the Pacific coast last spring. I would not be surprised if some day, when on the coast, she would extend her journey to Honolulu. She has been urged very strongly to visit Japan, and may do so ere long. Her success in evangelistic work among women, especially the educated class, seems to be very great, for all of which I am very thankful. I have no son to follow me in the ministry, and it is a pleasure to know that at least one of my daughters is so blest in the Lord's work among her own sex. My youngest daughter, Edith, is a senior in the College for Women at Western Reserve University in this city. She will probably follow her sister in a similar work, or as a Bible-reader, for which she has peculiar talent."

Guided by the address of Arthur D. Baldwin as given in our last Annual Report, Mr. Conde called on the young lawyer and expressed much pleasure in making the acquaintance of a son of his early friend. Mr. Conde's latch string hangs out for all Cousins at 33 Wellesley Street, East Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Susan A. Searle sends greeting from Kobe, Japan, where she is busy in a school of two hundred pupils.

Mrs. G. P. Andrews writes from Berkeley, Cal., that they have found a most delectable place to live in, for a time at least. They are situated with old friends, dear as near relatives, and both she and Winifred are leading busy lives. The town was one beautiful garden of choice flowers, and she takes long walks to inhale the delicious freshness of the air. Besides these, she says, there are rarer pleasures—pleasures belonging to a university town, pleasant, unassuming, intelligent folk, who live simply, while they give themselves to books, lectures, concerts and social reunions, being largely of one mind in taste, and ever striving after the best things.

Mrs. C. M. Hyde, after her tour of Europe with Mrs. Cordelia Hyde Collins, is happily located in a home of her own, so near her son Henry's as to be almost one of the family. Here she receives every attention that care and thoughtfulness can give. Her home, she says, will ever be open to welcome the Honolulu friends, as that at Honolulu was to greet the stranger.

Hon. G. D. Gilman of Boston writes to Dr. S. E. Bishop, of the early experiences of Honolulu in 1841: "The old Hawaiian Sabbath as it was, is a most pleasant memory. The stillness, the brightness, the bells calling to worship, the orderly quiet crowds, old and young, the cheery greetings, the varied costumes giving bright bits of color along the road, the services at Kawaiahao, first in the old thatched church with the sides eaten off by horses and donkeys, Limaikaika's (Armstrong's) sermon, and Lowell Smith's in the afternoon, all have left a memory that is yet dearly cherished. But alas! there are none about me with whom I can share these tender thoughts. He hoomanao wale no i ka noho malihini wale i kahi e."

On the second Sunday in January, 1905, Dr. Beckwith resigned his charge of the Makawao Foreign Church of Paia, Maui. He had hoped to continue preaching till his four score years were numbered, but his late illness decided him in an earlier retirement. He is now seventy-eight years old and has been fifty years a minister. But a short time ago he said, "With the exception of slight ailments I have never been ill, and during all my ministry of fifty years I have never failed in meeting a pulpit appointment."

Rev. O. P. Emerson and wife were called, about a year ago, to oversee the native churches on Maui, and letters from them tell of busy days and encouraging work. They expect to visit the mainland during the summer.

Mrs. Frances S. Loomis writes to Miss Chamberlain from her home in Rochester, Wis. She tells of her younger son, Edward, making a fine start at Beloit College—the youngest and smallest boy in college. He is only sixteen. Mr. Loomis had been suffering from a series of disasters, including broken ribs and a carbuncle. The little granddaughter, Frances L., had visited her, and the triplet boys had made Christmas times merry with horns and mouth-organs.

Miss Martha Chamberlain, for so many years our beloved secretary, has been among the "Shut-ins" since Oct. 4th. As usual, she was at her post of duty. As Vice-president of the Woman's Board of Missions she was filling the chair of the absent President. She went through her reading and address, and then lost power of speech and motion, and was carried from the room. Those present thought she had given her last message, but she is slowly recovering. In six weeks she was removed from the sanitarium to her home, where she is well cared for by a faithful nurse and her devoted nieces. She is now able to go out driving and to walk across her room. This is her resting time, and while she is laid aside, we ask for her letters from all absent cousins. The Secretary will gladly assist in answering these letters.

Miss Fidelia Lyons, who had been very ill at her home in Waimea, Hawaii, was brought to Honolulu, Sept. 24th, and has been very slowly gaining in health.

Among those returning from their summer outings were Dr. and Mrs. Whitney from a delightful trip along the Alaskan coast; the family of F. J. Lowrey from their European tour; and Mrs. Swanzy from Europe.

From California came Miss Margaret Hopper and her mother from their annual visit; also W. H. and Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Laura Wight.

Mr. W. C. Weedon came from the Orient imbued with a growing admiration for China and her great possibilities.

In November Mrs. H. C. Coleman came home, and with her Mrs. Helen Castle Meed on a visit to the dear mother whose recent illness left her very frail.

Mrs. S. M. Damon and Douglass came home in November, also Mrs. L. A. Thurston and children, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, and Harold Dillingham.

In this month also returned some of the delegates from the Assembly of the American Board at Grinnell, Iowa, Rev. W. D. Westervelt and P. C. Jones, with Dr. Bingham and Mrs. Coan. Dr. Bingham had extended his trip to Europe as a guest of his son, and he was also one of those who christened the new "Morning Star." Mrs. Coan, who "went away with much hesitation, fear and doubt," confesses to having had a "glorious good time." She found a welcome among old friends and new, in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Ohio and Iowa, in private and in public. The first meeting she attended was at Clifton Springs, an international reunion of Missionaries from Africa, Burmah, China, Japan, Mexico and the Isles of the Sea. They were delightful people, and the beauty of the meeting lay in the harmony, there being no jar of any kind, all feeling themselves to be in heavenly places. She attended some meetings in New England, and then the great uplifting ones of the American Board at Grinnell and the Congregational Conference at Des Moines, and her visit was rounded out by her return on the steamer with thirty or more missionaries bound for the Orient, dear young people who made them realize that the Master's work goes on. Rev. E. W. Thwing returned from the convention in September.

Among the Cousins who have visited Honolulu during the year are Mrs. S. T. Alexander and the Misses Alexander from Oakland, Mrs. Clarisse (Weaver) Boedefeld with her little son, guests of her mother, Mrs. E. A. Weaver, Mrs. Wm. Bailey, visiting her mother Mrs. Hobron, Mrs. Mary Rice Scott who spent some time on Kauai, Mr. Wm. Alexander from Grass Valley, California, and Mrs. Emmet Jones from Alameda.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cooke have made a visit to the coast and returned, also W. R. Castle and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Castle and Miss White.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Emerson are spending the year in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atherton spent the winter in Pasadena.

Mrs. Atwater made a short trip to Oakland to attend the golden wedding of her parents.

Mrs. Kincaid has been caring for her sick mother, who has recently passed away.

Rev. and Mrs. Leadingham were at Elyria, Ohio, but Mr. Leadingham's physician thought the Ohio winter too severe and advised a change to Florida. Mrs. Geo. P. Castle has been called to the States by the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Isenberg left in March for a year's sojourn in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Baldwin have been visiting friends in the East. We are glad to congratulate Mr. Wm. Waterhouse on his election as Mayor of Pasadena.

Mr. Henry P. Judd, formerly of Palama chapel, finished a successful summer's work at Forestport, N. Y., supplying Presbyterian churches there. Returning to complete his Theological course at Auburn, he was appointed assistant pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church in that place.

Gerrit and Lawrence Judd returned from Hotchkiss School, Conn., and are attending Oahu College. Sherwood Lowrey is at Hotchkiss School and his brother Frederick is at Cambridge.

Robert S. Andrews is on the U. S. S. Wisconsin now at Cavite, in the wireless telegraph department, and Carl Andrews is at Rose Polytechnic School at Terre Haute, Ind.

Miss Eleanor Waterhouse has gone to Wellesley College, and Miss Margaret Peterson is also at Wellesley. Miss Alice Kluegel is at Mills College. Miss May Kluegel and Miss Ethel Damon are teachers in the Normal School. Miss Annie Forbes teaches at Kawaiahao, and Miss Ellen G. Lyman, after a four years' rest, is in her old place in the Hilo Boarding School.

Delegate Kuhio has appointed Albert K. Lyman to the cadetship at West Point. Lyman's brother Clarence has been two years at that institution. Captain David Lyman, of the Salvation Army, returned from San Francisco, where he has been engaged in army work for three years.

W. H. Dole, of the class of 1905, Stanford University, has won honors as an athlete. Rev. B. V. Bazata, husband of our cousin Minnie Bailey, has been called to fill the pulpit at Paia.

On the China of April 3, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin returned from a trip to the Coast; also Miss Mabel Sunter, who has had a year in the Moody schools, Chicago.

By the Manchuria, April 24, there returned to Hawaii nei our cousin

H. M. Alexander and bride, Mrs. W. L. Howard, Mrs. Ida W. Waterhouse, Miss Elnora Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Gault, Miss N. M. White, Mr. A. Gartley, and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wilcox. To all these returning cousins we give a hearty welcome.

The new "Morning Star," Captain Garland, master, had a long passage to Micronesia by way of the Mediterranean and Suez canal. We hear that she arrived safe at Ponape in October, with all well on board. Since then she has been in very active service in Micronesia, and Mr. Jagnow, in the Herald, writes enthusiastically of "the new vessel which the Christian people of America have so kindly sent out for this glorious work among these isles of the sea."

All will be glad to hear that Mother Rice, at the old Lihue home, Kauai, keeps well and is able to go out for many drives. On Thanksgiving day she sat with children, grandchildren, and children of the fourth generation at a table spread under the tropical trees of her son's beautiful residence.

Mother Parker's ninety-ninth birthday was celebrated on Dec. 9th. She was in excellent spirits all day and expressed much pleasure at seeing so many of her old friends. Many presents were received. From Lunalilo Home came a magnificent cake with an appropriate inscription on it. Mother Parker expects to celebrate her Centennial next December.

These "Mothers in Israel," with Mother Castle and Mother Taylor, have grown very weary in the long life-journey. They have finished their work. They have sent on much treasure to the new home and are leaving many sheaves behind, ready for others to gather in; and now they quietly await, amid the twilight memories, the opening of the door that shall usher them into the "Place" prepared, and into the glorious Presence. The Cousins would like to extend congratulations and lay wreaths of laurel and ivy at their feet before they enter into the glory, counting every hour of delay as our blessing and benediction.

THE FUTURE

Only two words seem appropriate for the future of the Society. Those are, "go forward." Sugar is up. There will be more money in the country, and some of this money will fall into the hands of those who are longing to advance the great cause of Christendom along the lines of the Mission Fathers.

Have you noticed how many mission homes are still breathing the spirit of their owners? See the Baldwin premises at Lahaina, thronged with busy little hands and feet, and ringing with songs from the kindergarten. And the Castle Home, here in Honolulu, is going on with Mother Castle's own work, caring for the homeless. There are others; and is it not a beautiful thought that the very walls of these homes echo the deeds of the dear ones?

Among those left are the Cooke and Chamberlain homes, hallowed by thousands of prayers and deeds of mercy unrecorded save in the books of heaven. It seems to us that these are reserved for even greater honor, and here, we believe, at the right time and in the right way, will be again gathered the headquarters of the Hawaiian Mission.

THE BINGHAM TABLET

If our Report were not already too long, we would like to add an extended appendix concerning the unveiling of the Bingham Tablet on the Punahou grounds, April 19, 1905. After the band had played the "Old Hundred Doxology," a prayer was offered by Dr. S. E. Bishop, the oldest living male descendant of the missionaries. Then a large chorus, led by Miss Caroline Castle, sang the grand old hymn, "Head of the Church Triumphant," which was sung at the ordination of Father Bingham and Father Thurston at Goshen, then in the farewell service in Boston, and later sung by both men as they stood in the rigging of the "Thaddeus" as it lay in the lee of Hawaii.

Eloquent addresses were made by Rev. O. H. Gulick, the oldest living Punahou student, Judge Sanford B. Dole, the son of the first President of Punahou School, L. A. Thurston, the grandson of the pioneer missionary Thurston, and by Dr. Hiram Bingham, son of the pioneer Hiram Bingham who gave the Punahou grounds for the cause of education.

As Dr. Bingham unveiled the flag-covered boulder and tablet, the Stars and Stripes, the Hawaiian flag and two Punahou banners in buff and blue rose high in the air, the audience rising to their feet and standing while the boulder was decorated with leis of gardinia, plumaria and maile by Mrs. Lydia Bingham Coan and the great-granddaughters of this pioneer band, Mary Kluegel, Claire Kelley, Jane L. Winne, Catharine W. Goodale, Helen A. Alexander and Margaret C. Thurston.

During the exercises, an ode written forty years ago in honor of Mr. Bingham, was read by Mrs. Coan, and a double trio, "To Earth Fair Winds are Bringing," was sung by the Misses C. V. Hall, Julie Damon, E. M. Damon, H. A. Austin, A. E. Judd and Mrs. C. B. Damon, accompanied by Miss Caroline Castle on the piano and a violin obligato by Miss Ethel Andrews.

Add to all these the perfect day, the fine setting of College Campus and Rocky Hill, the crowd of interested and happy faces, and the eloquence that came from deep feeling, and you have a glimpse of this historical day. The full account was printed in the Advertiser of April 20 and in the May Friend, and is well worth preserving.

We are indebted to the Advertiser, and especially to the Friend, for many items in this Report.

GOLDEN WEDDING

The Golden Wedding of Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Gulick was celebrated May 19 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Richards. The reception was held on the lawn. The bride and groom of fifty years stood at the foot of the terrace on a carpet of yellow leaves, and the steps decorated with baskets of brilliant calliopsis made a pathway of gold up to—not the "city of pure gold," but the "lanai" decked with the beautiful "Golden Shower."

The greetings were many. First were the happy words of W. R. Castle for the H. M. C. Society. Then Dr. Scudder spoke for the American Board of Missions, Dr. Bishop for the Hawaiian Board, Mrs. Scudder for far Japan, Mr. Lono for Kaumakapili, Mr. Okumura for the Japanese Association, Judge Dole for the citizens of Hawaii, and Mrs. W. W. Hall for the Woman's Board.

The gifts were appropriate: a gold watch from the Japanese Evangelical Association with a chain from relatives; $60 in gold from the Japanese Mission in Japan, a picture of Fujiama with an original poem in Japanese by Mr. Okumura from the Japanese pastors, also a present from the Japanese Consul, Miki-Saito. There were other gifts. Mrs. Sarepta Gulick gave a pair of sleeve-buttons which had belonged to Rev. Gulick's grandfather at the time of the Revolution, and were worn by his son General Thomas in the war of 1812. Lastly, Mr. P. C. Jones, saying "Money talks," presented a purse containing over $600 in gold, which he said was from a large number of old-time friends and new friends, and with it a scroll of the names of givers.

The wedding cake was passed, glad words were spoken, clasped hands conveyed many best wishes, and the sun, to add the finishing touch to a perfect day, sifted through the tropical foliage his slanting rays of gold.

Of this balance $249.75 is interest on our invested fund to be used for missionary purposes.

This fund now amounts to $3200.00. Of this amount $200.00 is loaned on a mortgage of a lot at Pearl City. The note is now due and will probably not be paid. The debtor has offered to make a deed of the land in payment of his debt. I recommend that this offer be accepted, as it will save the cost of a foreclosure.

Respectfully submitted,

LYLE A. DICKEY,
Treasurer.

HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

THE ORIGINAL PREAMBLE OF 1852.

We, the children of the American Protestant Mission to the Hawaiian Islands, desiring to strengthen the bond of union that naturally exists among us, and to cultivate the missionary spirit among ourselves; also with the view of aiding in the support of the "Micronesian Mission," about to be sent forth, one of whose members is of our own number, do hereby organize ourselves into a Social Missionary Society, under the following Constitution and By-Laws:

CONSTITUTION

AS AMENDED IN 1904.

ARTICLE 1. This Society shall be called "The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society."

ARTICLE 2. The design of the Society shall be to perpetuate the memory of the missionary fathers and mothers who brought Christianity to these Islands, also to promote union among its members, to cultivate in them an active missionary spirit, stir them up to good deeds, and to assist in the support of Christian work.

ARTICLE 3. The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-president, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer and a Recorder, all of whom, except the Recorder, shall be elected by ballot, to hold office for one year, or until their successors are elected or appointed.

ARTICLE 4. At each annual meeting of the Society, or as soon after as possible, the President shall appoint not less than three nor more than ten members, who, together with the officers mentioned in Article 3, shall constitute a Board of Managers, and who shall hold office until the next annual meeting, or until their successors are appointed.

ARTICLE 5. Any descendant, or consort of a descendant of those who are or who have been members of the American Protestant Mission of these Islands, or are members of this Society, may become a certified Life Member by paying ten dollars at one time, or one dollar as a first payment and one dollar or more annually thereafter until ten dollars has been paid.

ARTICLE 6. All members of the American Protestant Mission are Honorary Members of this Society. Any person may be admitted as an Honorary member by the consent of the Board of Managers, approved by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting of the Society.

ARTICLE 7. Any member may appeal from any action of the Board of Managers. If the appeal is seconded, such action may be reversed by a majority vote of the members present.

ARTICLE 8. The Society shall hold an annual meeting in April, in commemoration of the landing of the Missionaries in these Islands. Officers for the ensuing year shall be elected, reports of retiring officers read and appropriations made. Special meetings may also be held at the call of the president, whenever any missionary or social interest shall, in his opinion, render such meeting desirable.

ARTICLE 9. Each member may, on application, receive a certificate of membership in the following form, to be signed by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer:

One generation passeth away and another generation cometh; but the earth abideth forever.-Eccl.1:4

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity:—Ps. CXXXIII:1.

This May Certify that

Having paid the sum of.....Dollars into the Treasury, is a.....Member of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society.

Honolulu,.....190.....

(Signed) .....

President.

Treasurer.

Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature.—Mark XVI:15.

Charity suffereth long and is kind: is not easily provoked; thinketh no evil.—I. Cor. XIII:4-5.

ARTICLE 10. Alterations in, or additions to, this Constitution may be made at any regular or special meeting, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, such alterations or additions having been handed in, in writing, through the Board of Managers or by three members.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I.— OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The President shall preside over the meetings of the Society, appoint the Recorder and all the Committees not otherwise provided for, sign all certificates of membership, arrange the program of exercises for each regular meeting, consulting with the chairmen of the various committees, and he may convene the Society to special meetings at his discretion. He shall also be ex-officio President of the Board of Managers.

SECTION 2. The Vice-president shall audit the Annual Report of the Treasurer, and perform all the duties of the President in case of his absence.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary to keep a record of the proceedings of the Society at its several meetings, make out an abstract of the proceedings of the Society, at its annual meeting, also be ex-officio Secretary of the Board of Managers.

SECTION 4. The Corresponding Secretary, who may be a salaried officer, shall carry on the correspondence of the Society at home and abroad, take charge of the books and papers of the Society, also of the publication of matters of interest, and report at its annual meeting.

SECTION 5. The Treasurer shall receive and safely keep all moneys belonging to the Society, pay all orders drawn on him in accordance with provisions in Art. 1, Sect. 6, of the By-Laws, and none other, shall counter-sign all certificates of membership, and shall, at the annual meeting of the Society, present an accurate statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Society during the year, and of its invested funds, and present his book and vouchers to the Vice-president to audit before the annual meeting.

SECTION 6. No money shall be paid out by the Treasurer except upon an order of the Board of Managers or approval of the President.

ARTICLE 2.—THE RECORDER.

SECTION 1. The Recorder, who may be a salaried officer, shall keep a book of records, in which shall be placed the names of all the missionaries sent to the Hawaiian Islands by the A. B. C. F. M. prior to the year 1900, their date of arrival, departure, death and such other information of historical value as may be collected.

Also the names of all the descendants of each of said missionaries, their marriage, residence, death, and any data of value relating to them which may be obtained.

The names of all the life members of this Society shall be recorded.

This book of records shall be kept in such a manner that the genealogy of any name upon its pages may be traced accurately to his or her missionary ancestor.

ARTICLE 3.—BOARD OF MANAGERS.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers to superintend all business transactions of the Society not otherwise provided for in the Constitution, have the general control and management of the property of the Society, subject to the By-Laws and such resolutions as shall, from time to time, be adopted by the Society, and to keep full and correct minutes of its own proceedings.

SECTION 2. Any member of the Society desiring to bring any business before the Board of Managers shall make known such business in a written application to some member of the Board, who shall lay it before the Board for their action.

SECTION 3. The Board shall decide upon all applications for membership under Article 6 of the Constitution; and also make recommendations concerning the disposition of the funds of the Society.

SECTION 4. A report of the Board shall be presented to the Society at each regular meeting.

SECTION 5. Any vacancies occurring in the Board of Managers, by death or otherwise, may be filled by the President.

SECTION 6. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President at his discretion, or by three members thereof. The Secretary of the Board shall note the members present at each meeting. Three members with the President, or a majority of the Board, shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE 4.—DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

The members of the Society are expected to attend the meetings of the Society, as far as may be possible; to perform all such duties as may, from time to time, be assigned to them; to collect all information that may be useful or interesting to the Society, and contribute to the funds of the Society, according to their generosity and means. All members of the Society, including those abroad, are expected to contribute at least one dollar annually.

ARTICLE 5.— MEETINGS.

1. The regular meeting of the Society shall be opened by prayer and singing.

2. The minutes of the last meeting shall be read by the Recording Secretary.

3. The report of the Board of Managers shall then be read and acted upon.

4. A collection shall be taken up by the Treasurer.

5. Next shall follow miscellaneous business.

6. The entertainment provided for shall then be in order.

7. After which the meeting may be closed by singing.

The meetings of the Society shall be open to such guests as any of the members may invite.

At special meetings it shall not be required that the order of business laid down for the regular meetings be observed.

ARTICLE 6.—RULES OF ORDER.

SECTION 1. In Miscellaneous Business no one shall speak more than five minutes at a time without permission from the Society.

SECTION 2. In all points of order the presiding officer shall be guided by the rules laid down in Roberts' Rules of Order.

ARTICLE 7.

These By-Laws may be amended or annulled by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting of the Society, such alterations having been handed in in writing through the Board of Managers, or by three members.

LIFE MEMBERS OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY, 1905

Some changes in the appearance of the following list require explanation.

1. The names of deceased members have been segregated, and will be printed in this issue, and every fifth year hereafter. Hence the disuse of the star for denoting deceased members.

2. Original members of the Society, whether children of missionaries or elect members, will have their names printed in the usual manner. The names of their children will be preceded by one star, and those of children's children by two stars.

3. In many cases, the name is preceded by a symbol in the margin, which denotes the person's missionary parentage or ancestry; and the key to the symbols is the list below, in which the missionary names are given, but no titles.

4. A dagger [†] in the margin denotes an adopted child, or a a descendant of one.

ADVERTISEMENT

At the meeting of April 29, 1905, the Society voted to reduce the price of the Historical Missionary Album, in its various styles, as follows:

In morocco binding,	from	$7.50	to	$5.00
In cloth binding, .	from	5.00	to	2.50
In sheets, unbound,	from	2.00	to	1.25

Orders with money addressed to H. M. C. Society, 707 Wyllie St., Honolulu, H. I., will be delivered or mailed without further charges.

NOTICE

The attention of all who are interested is called to Article 5 of the Constitution, which has been changed this year so as to do away with Annual Membership, and make it possible to pay the Life Membership fee on easy terms.

REQUEST

Do not destroy the old Annual Reports. Where there are several Members of the Society in one family, there may be an accumulation of annuals which are not desired for preservation, and if these are collected at headquarters, they will be ready to meet present and future calls on our reserves. We will gladly send the money to pay for the return of such pamphlets to us by mail.
